PRELIMINARY INJUNCTION ORDER

For the reasons stated on the record, Plaintiffs’ motion for a temporary restraining order and preliminary injunction (Doc. 3) is granted in part. Defendant John Baldwin, in his official capacity as Director of the Illinois Department of Corrections, is preliminarily enjoined to implement the following procedures within 14 days and thereafter take reasonable steps to ensure that the procedures are followed, until further order of court.

1. A person convicted of a sex offense who is released on mandatory supervised release (“parolee”) shall be given the opportunity for an appointment with a therapist within 14 days of release.

2. Within 21 days of the initial appointment, the therapist and the parolee’s parole agent will determine whether there is reasonable cause to believe that the parolee’s child(ren) would be endangered by parent-child contact with the parolee. The parole agent shall give considerable weight to the therapist’s recommendation.

3. If parent-child contact is restricted or prohibited:

- a. The parole agent and therapist must give the reasons for the restriction or prohibition briefly in writing.
- b. The restriction or prohibition will automatically be reviewed by the therapist and parole agent every 28 days, and if any restriction or prohibition continues, reasons will be provided briefly in writing.
- c. The parolee may seek review of any restriction or prohibition from the Deputy Chief of Parole, and the Deputy Chief (or his/her designee, so long as the designee is not the parole agent directly supervising the parolee) will respond in writing within 21 days.

This order is interlocutory and thus is subject to amendment or termination by court order, which may be sought by motion.
